

OM Workspace at a glance.

Support you can count on. We're not a local dealer who is here today, gone tomorrow. As a division of OfficeMax, we put the buying power of a $9 billion company to work for you – providing rocksolid, long-term support for your project demands.

OM Workspace is a full-service national furniture dealership.

We're the only true national furniture distributor offering a full range of furniture solutions for business. We also provide you with dedicated associates to help implement your solutions nationwide.

- 38 locations, national coverage
- 350 dedicated furniture professionals
- Consistent service with standardized processes and procedures
- From project furniture support to facilities services

The most complete package – From Need it NOW to Need it ALL. Whether your furniture needs are small or comprehensive, urgent or long-term, OM Workspace has the solutions that fit. Our wide selection of in-stock, ready-to-ship furniture means that you can have what you need within days. If your needs are more specialized, you'll have access to special order and custom furniture from top manufacturers as well as full-service space planning and installation

We have an extensive portfolio of high-quality products.

There's no greater source than OM Workspace for quality office furniture. Choose from a broad range of furniture for every functional area in a variety of styles – traditional, transitional or contemporary – to suit your specific taste.

- The best selection in the industry
- Top-grade special order
- Custom-made furniture

Specialized products and expertise. We have experience serving the specialized needs of a number of industries and can offer the products and services to suit. Our experience includes solutions for the following areas:

- GSA
- Health care
- Legal
- Education

From concept to completion – we offer a full range of services. Creative services, project management, labor and financial services, and custom programs – we are prepared to help you through every aspect of your project. Draw on a range of turnkey planning and installation services no matter what stage your project is in.

Flexibility to develop and support a furniture standards program for all your locations. Whether you need to supplement an established program or need help creating one. Our furniture specialists will help you make selections, build a program and then provide easy access for each of your locations as furniture needs arise. We also provide local services to help your satellite offices plan or design space, make their selection, or just manage the delivery and installation of their furniture.

Our team has extensive experience in handling complex, sophisticated commercial furniture projects. Members of our staff have handled multi-million dollar projects, including Bader Rutter, Sidley Austin, Hines and Perkins Coie.

Trained and trusted. We hire and train the best, most experienced people from our industry and provide them with the best possible tools. Our furniture specialists work with you to create the perfect environment. We carefully consider each factor – style, efficiency, ergonomics, budget and timeline – until results are just right.

A highly efficient and value-driven provider. With our centralized back-room operations, competitive installation services and the purchasing power and financial resources of a Fortune 500 company, we are able to offer consolidated buying programs that optimize our customers' budgets. As a division of OfficeMax, we can offer financial incentives and benefits for aggregating furniture purchases with other office products – no other furniture dealer can do that.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Our goal is to make sure you are completely satisfied. That means you can count on us to be there, even after the punch list is completed. Following a thorough post-installation review, going over every single item on the project checklist, we set follow-up dates to assess workspace performance. No detail is too small.
